

Karen Schauber

Karen Schauber's flash fiction appears in seventy international literary magazines, journals, and anthologies. She is editor of the award-winning flash fiction anthology 'The Group of Seven Reimagined: Contemporary Stories Inspired by Historic Canadian Paintings' (Heritage House, 2019). Schauber curates Vancouver Flash Fiction, an online resource hub, and Miramichi Flash, a monthly literary column. Schauber is a member of the Canadian Authors Association, the Federation of British Columbia Writers, and the Writers' Union of Canada. In her spare time, she is a seasoned family therapist. A native of Montréal, she has called Vancouver home for the past three decades.

<https://karenschauber.weebly.com>

<https://karenschaubercreative.weebly.com>

<https://www.facebook.com/karenschauber>